Homesharing with an asylum seeker is a unique opportunity to live with and experience another person's culture and life, while providing you with great company and interesting conversations.

You'd be adding to their wellbeing by providing a stable base, and advice on how life works in Australia.

The City of Port Phillip is generously supporting Home Share Melbourne to connect local community members that have spare bedrooms and a caring and compassionate nature, with people who are seeking asylum in exchange for low rent &/or services. Home Share Melbourne will take care of all the hard stuff like reference checking, paperwork and administration costs - all you need is a spare room and a desire to make a new friend.

If you don't have a spare room but would like to help, please donate at:
